

Damage Redress Procedure and Action Plan for Air Transport Users

According to Article 61 of the Aviation Business Act (Protection of Air Transport Users, etc.) and Article 64 of the Enforcement Rules of the same Act, the following information is provided regarding Air Transport User Damage Redress.

Damage Redress in Cases of:

- 1. Failure or delay of transport by aviation transporter
- 2. Loss and/or damage of checked baggage
- 3. Oversold flight tickets
- 4. Delayed payment of refund for cancelled flight tickets
- 5. Unable to board due to lack of information on boarding gate, flight number, etc
- 6. Missing mileage caused by air carrier's' negligence
- 7. Mileage expired without airline's prior notice
- 8. Troubled boarding due to lack of Facilities of the Handicapped required by the Act of Promotion of the Transportation Convenience for the mobility handicapped

However, redress will be exempt in cases where the air traffic operator can prove that the damages were caused by unavoidable circumstances such as adverse weather conditions, unexpected measures for safe operation and maintenance, natural disasters, or flight connections*, etc.

*Issues with flight connections are as follows:

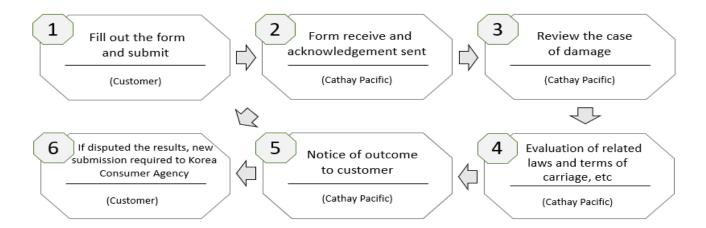

- Air Traffic Control delays approval for reasons such as airplane standing by for take-off or remaining in the air, etc.
- Flight delay due to acts of terrorism, contagious diseases, etc.
- Flight delay due to problems with airport facilities
- Other conditions acknowledged by the director of local aviation office
